IDEAL TEEN MELODRAMA

BY: MATTIE SCHANANDORE

one tree hill
A teen melodrama is a TV show that includes so much drama and suspense that the audience becomes attached and can relate to the emotions the show is trying to convey.
CRITERIA

- Realism - must be relatable and realistic
- Drama - exaggerated events to make the show interesting
- Message - age appropriate and positive
- Cast of the Show - build fan base
  - Character portrayal
  - Convincing
  - Chemistry
REALISM

“Why are you a cheerleader? I mean, no offense or anything, but you’re the least cheery person I know.” - Lucas

Then why do you do it? I mean, do you really like it or not? - Lucas

“If I say I like it then I’m just another cheerleader. But, if I say that I hate it, then I’m either a liar or a fraud.” - Peyton
DRAMA
MESSAGE
Students were assigned a partner where they must ask them a series of personal questions and then create a picture representing their answers.
Cast of the Show

“When we all get together, it’s always a special bond. We lived through it together” – Hilarie Burton (Peyton)
“Four years later Haley, a teacher, isn’t applying for food stamps or stripping to keep her child in clean pajamas; she is living instead in a nicely appointed house, dealing with middle-aged problems. Her 22-year-old husband, Nathan his pro basketball career curtailed, is having a midlife crisis...” – Ginia Bellafante

